

transome at two thirds of the height of the said windows the doors of the second story to be three foot & half wide and seven foot high and the windows of the said story two foot and half wide & five foot high with double lights to be divided with a transome at two thirds of their height which said windows in the second story shall be eight in number as in the first story directly over the windows of the first story besides one in the second story in the porch of the same dimensions with those in the Chambers of the second story that there be three partitions in the second story as the Governour shall direct the said partitions double lathed and plastered the floores to be laid with quartered plank inch & quarter thick after planed either good white oak or pine of this country Sanson white the Turpentine is in them the doors all bottomed with good substanciall hinges Spring Stock locks and latches two Iron Casements to every window in the said House the frames and Casements to be well laid in Lynseed Oyle according to art and glased with good floor square Glass the Summers and Girders for the floores to be sixteen & twelve inches square the Juce six and four inches square standing twelve inches a sunder the wall plates all round the house porch and Store case to be twelve and seven inches square the Rafters eight teen foot & half long standing twelve inches a sunder with six paire of principalls and double purlions framed in even with the Rafters & to be morticed in & every paire of Principalls to be braced in & every paire of Rafters to have two bottomed braces to the collar beame every paire of principalls to be ten & eight inches square the purlions six inches square the small Rafters four & three inches square to be topped with mortice & tenant and pinned at head and byss tenanted at the foot the laths for the tile of heart of white oak & one inch thick the principall Rafters of the porch & Store case to be seven and five inches & the feet of the Rafters to sett over a foot & half on each